Sino-EU International Incubator Strategic Cooperation

Establish long-term stable economic cooperation

Relying on the advantages of both parties, the project connection is used as a link to strengthen communication and cooperation between Liudong New District and European enterprises and industry associations, focusing on strengthening R&D and supporting of automobile and parts, and cooperation with strategic emerging industries such as high-end equipment manufacturing, new generation information technology, and new materials.

Joint construction of international incubator

Integrate the innovative and entrepreneurial resources of both sides, strengthen exchanges and cooperation in the fields of overseas capital, talents, technology projects and incubators, especially transnational, cross-industry free flow of innovation and entrepreneurial elements, fully integrate the global innovation chain, make full use of the global capital chain, and fully absorb global innovation and entrepreneurial talents.

Jointly construct Industrial, Study and Research Development Center of Sina- Europe Research and Research Base

Give full play to the advantages of enterprises, universities and research institutes to solve major technical problems in Liuzhou's industry, realize the transformation of technology and scientific and technological achievements, carry out various exchanges and cooperation, and closely integrate production, study and research, focus on high-tech research and development, scientific and technological results incubation and industrialization, and the cultivation and introduction of high-level talents.
